Security

- All guests should arrive at the external security checkpoint located in the white tent at 18 Broad Street at the corner of Broad Street and Exchange Place.
- All guests are required to show a government issued photo ID (i.e. valid driver's license or passport) and go through airport-like security upon entering the NYSE.

Dress code

- All visitors should dress appropriately for a business environment. No shorts, flip flops, sandals, halter tops, tee shirts, bare backs or midriffs. Jackets and collared shirts are preferred. Please escort any guests who do not meet the requirements to the Visitors' Gallery. To maintain the visual integrity of the Trading Floor, non-compliant individuals may be denied admittance.
- Everyone must have visible badges at all times (including employees).
